

HERB' WRITES TO MOTHER OF HIS DOROTHY

Tells of Pride He Has in Playing Character in Arthur B. Reeve Film.

The first installment of the letters from Herbert Rawlinson, screen star, to the mother of his child sweetheart, Dorothy Clark, actress, was begun Saturday. Today's installment concludes the series of Rawlinson letters.

Rawlinson fell in love with Dorothy when she was eleven. Dorothy's mother early this year started suit against him in Los Angeles for $200,000 damages, alleging that he had done her daughter an injustice.

Dorothy for several months denied it, but is now backing her mother against the screen star. The love letters he wrote to Dorothy, published in The Washington Times, will figure in the suit. Meanwhile Dorothy got married to a piano salesman in New England, but is seeking annulment on the ground of non-age. She is only seventeen now.

Herbert Rawlinson was busy on a Craig Kennedy serial when he wrote a letter to Mrs. Ethel Clark, Dorothy Clark's mother, published herewith. He took great pride in playing the part of the famous character created by Arthur B. Reeve. He wrote in this letter of his desire to bring "Ethel" and her daughter East, as they were on the Coast and he in New York, but his funds were low.

Asks Forgiveness.

A telegram dated February 28 was sent to Mrs. Clark and Dorothy together, apologizing for a long silence on the part of Herb. It reads: "Dear Ethel and Dorothy, please forgive my long silence. Am working very hard. You know what serials are. Wrote you both letters today. Hello, sweet Dorothy: I have not forgotten you, as today's letter will explain. Best of love to you both, Herbert."

The letter written to Ethel on the same day that the foregoing telegram was sent follows. It, too, was written from his dressing room: "My Dear Ethel,

"Too many days since I have written you, and the reason for the delay has been work. Oh, boy! I am doing a serial and you know what that means. I am doing the Craig Kennedy stories, this particular character being the reason for my accepting it, and, of course, the money attendant upon same.

Those Debts.

"Dorothy wrote me a sweet letter telling me how much you'd both like to come East. I dare say you would both get on much better if you were here, and God knows I wish I could bring you East right away, but I

IT WAS A LUCKY DAY FOR JACOBS

Indiana Ave. Citizen Was So Built Up by Tanlac His Friends Are Now Taking It.

"Not long ago I got in such bad shape I saw I had to get something to bolster me up, and I want to say it was a lucky day when I picked Tanlac for the job," was the characteristic statement of George E. Jacobs, 314 Indiana avenue northwest, Washington, D. C., a well-known carpenter.

"With the rush in building going on I found I was about to give out for I was losing strength and energy right along. My appetite gave way and I tell you it was a task for me to eat enough to support me in my work. The best of food went against me, and it was all I could do to stay on the job sometimes on account of dizzy spells that came on me. I often felt so weak I thought I would just simply collapse.

"A good night's sleep was impossible for me and I would get up in the morning all tired out and with no pep or energy at all, and just had to force myself along.

"But three bottles of Tanlac fixed me up so I soon had a first-class appetite and could eat plenty of good solid food and get the strength out of it I needed. The dizzy spells, weakness, haven't bothered me any more, but I am going to take a few more bottles of Tanlac to make a complete job of it. Several of my friends saw what Tanlac did for me and started taking it, and they are getting results, too. When it comes to toning up a fellow all over, Tanlac has them all beat."

Tanlac is sold in Washington by Peoples Drug Stores and all good druggists.

How to Lose Your Tan, Freckles or Wrinkles Using Merciolized Wax and Sazolite

A day's motoring, an afternoon on the tennis court or a long walk on the beach or exposure to a water trip often brings on a deep tan or vivid crimson or more perplexing still, a vigorous crop of freckles. A very necessary thing then is Merciolized Wax (Dearborn Supply Co., Chicago) which removes tan, redness or freckles quite easily. It literally peels off the affected skin—just a little at a time, so there's no hurt or inconvenience. As the skin comes off in almost invisible flaky particles, no trace of the treatment is shown. On an ounce of merciolized wax at your druggist's and use this nightly as you would cold cream, washing it off morning in a weak or so you will have an entirely new skin, beautiful clear, transparent and of a most delicate whiteness. Wrinkles, so apt to form at this season, may be easily and quickly removed by bathing the face in a solution of powdered sazolite, one ounce, dissolved in witch hazel, one-half pint. This is not only a valuable astringent, but has a beneficial tonic effect also.

PARIS, France. THE separate little jacket that Paris has gone quite mad about is here shown as designed by Paul Poiret. It is a short, widely sleeved affair of black crepe, boldly striped in white. The collar and sleeve bands are of white crepe and so, of course, is the plaited skirt. The hat, of white crepe, is faced with black and the cherries are also black.

ALTHOUGH the Parisian does not take kindly to the tailleur, there is no doubt that Paris makes a charming tailor when the spirit moves her. The model illustrated today of brown kasha has the short military jacket that suggests the fashionable Russian blouse. The high collar and fairly loose sleeves are thoroughly in keeping and the embroidery is in black and dark brown.

simply can't. I still have some debts to clear up and I must get them off my hands right away.

"How I'd love to see you again! Just think, it's over a year! 'Ethel, you have told me of Steadman. I always have liked him very much.

"Dear little Dot. She sent me a couple of snapshots, and how she has grown up! It is as you said. I was so surprised.

Wants to Provide.

"I do hope the darling will never stop loving me. She is so sweet. In my last letter to her I asked her if I could send her a little money occasionally. I have not had an answer yet. I would like to now and then. She could buy herself little odds and ends. I'd love to do it.

"Please write and tell me what you think about it. I know he's a damn fine chap, and I like him, and loving Dot I naturally thought pretty hard.

"Good-bye for the present. Write soon. My love to you both."

This letter is unsigned.

Another letter, of more formal tone, was written to "Ethel" on July 15, 1919, from the Lambie Club. It acknowledges one from her:

"My Dear Ethel:

"Yours received on my return from the country where I have been resting up prior to starting on my new venture—namely, twenty-two real stores of the life of Chief Flynn of the Secret Service.

"My director, Carl Harbaugh, is a great believer in using children in pictures, so that I might be able to do something for Dorothy when she comes East. When do you expect her? I shall surely be glad to see her again.

"Had a splendid vacation. Was gone three weeks. Had plenty of swimming, sailing, and rowing and I'm as brown as a berry.

"Had a sweet letter from Dorothy yesterday. She said she was taking care of the children. Seems like a little mother.

"Well, I do hope matters straighten themselves for you, and I'll be very glad to see you again on your return to New York. The best of health and loads of luck.

"Always and sincerely yours, "HERBERT R."

MEANEST MAN FINED FOR HITTING MOTHER, AGED 84

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Aug. 28.—Spectators applauded when Police Judge Gessner invoked the limit of the law in punishing "Youngstown's meanest man," William Wills.

Convicted of knocking down his eighty-four-year-old mother and using abusive language, Wills was fined $200 and costs and sentenced to six months in jail. If unable to pay the fine Wills will be confined nearly a year and a half.

WASTE PAPER ROBBERY STIRS PITTSBURGH POLICE

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 28.—I've heard of some funny robberies, but this one certainly wins the bacon," commented Police Commissioner McIntosh, of the South Side, as he gazed perplexedly at a report in front of him. The report stated that the building occupied by the Loose-Wiles Biscuit Company, 86 South Thirteenth street, opposite the South Side police station, was entered by robbers, who took fifteen 100-pound bales of scrap paper.

Entrance was gained by forcing a rear window of the building. The robbers carried the loot from the

MUSIC OF INCAS MAKES BIG HIT WITH GERMANS

Rare and Beautiful Melodies Are Revived by Prof. Robles' Researches.

By KARL H. VON WEIGAND.

BERLIN, Aug. 28.—The music of the Incas of Peru, Bolivia and Ecuador, resurrected by Prof. A. Alema Robles, a Peruvian, has made a big hit in Germany, the country of classic music. The music of the Incas has been presented for the first time in Germany, in Dresden.

It is small wonder that in a community where no misery or hunger or crime existed, where all property was the common possession of every man and the state looked after the babies and ailing women, that its peoples should naturally express themselves in songs of praise and glorification of powers that had created this Utopia for them.

So it was with the Incas, whose songs are rare and beautiful melodies. Long before Columbus discovered America, the Incas had built up these ideal communities in South America, but it is only within comparatively recent years that the present civilized world has become fully aware of the tremendous debt it owes to the art, music and general culture of those early Indians.

The introduction of the European system of private property and all its accompanying changes was not sufficient to destroy many of the old customs of the Sons of Inca (Sons of the Sun) and a number of their old festivals with the music and dances designed especially for them were preserved during the ensuing years.

Prof. Robles collected about 300 melodies of the early Incas, 240 from the colonial period and 70 modern songs.

Four of these have created an unusually deep impression on the music-loving public of Germany, the "Hymn to the Sun," "The Awakening Morning in the Andes," "The Butterflies," and the "Huanca Dance."

The "Awakening Morning in the Andes" is the work of Prof. Robles, based on the melodies he unearthed.

"The Butterflies" was sung at the time the corn was harvested. It was supposed to represent pursuit of butterflies over the cornfields. Young girls represented the butterflies, and as they sang and danced they plucked ears of corn. The one who had gathered the largest number received a handsome wedding present.

The fourth melody, the "Huanca Dance," is an historic dance describing the conquest of the Huanucas by the Incas.

All of these melodies have a simplicity, beauty and power rarely found.

WOMAN RUNS FOR STATE TREASURER IN TENNESSEE

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 28.—Mrs. Benton McMillin, wife of former Governor McMillin, one of the candidates for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, may be the first woman to hold a State office in Tennessee.

She will be a candidate before the Legislature for the office of State Treasurer.
